

OCCCCO & NUMA Partnership in Faith-Rooted Community Organizing

Introductions

Name and Favorite thing to do on a rainy day

- OCCCO
- Congregation Members

Purpose and Outcomes

Purpose:

Advance OCCCO's and NUMA's shared journey in faith-rooted community organizing

Outcomes:

- Learn about the process and goal of faith-rooted community organizing
- Understand the committee structure and role
- Understand how housing and and Immigration justice work might look like

About OCCCO

Mision: OCCCO develops transformational leaders within diverse, multicultural, interfaith communities who together have the power to shape equitable public policy throughout Orange County.

Vision: Orange County is a community where ALL people live with dignity and thrive.

Role:

- 1.) To activate and strengthen the capacity of faith communities to act for social justice collectively and
- 2.) To provide an organizational structure for powerful collective multifaith action.

Faith-rooted Community Organizing

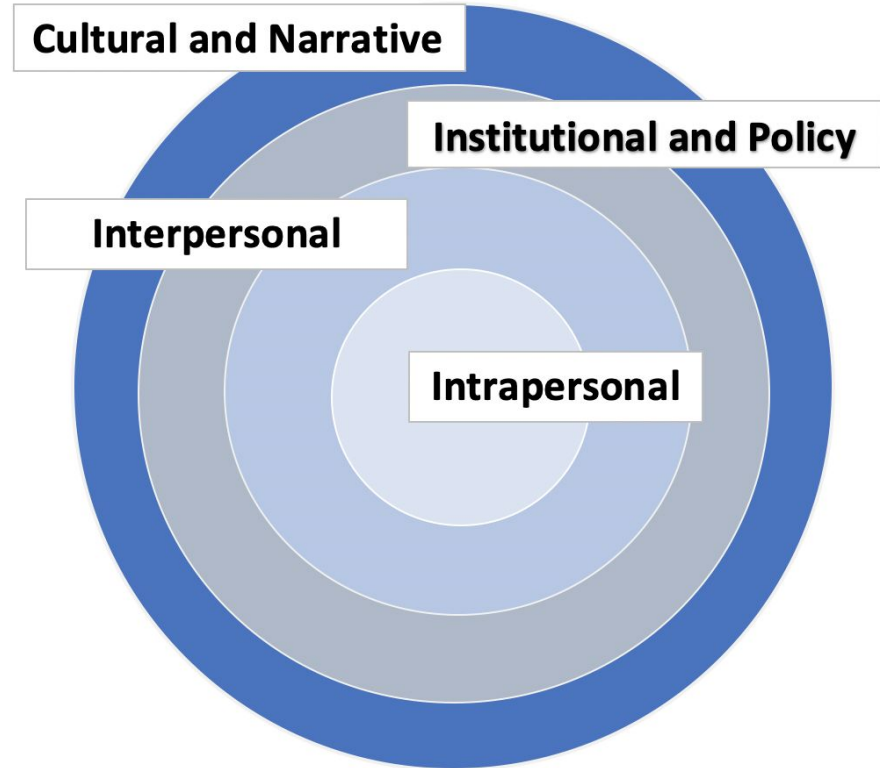

Questions for Reflections

1. What does it mean to be in right relationship?
2. Who do you/we need to be in right relationship with?

Relationships Create Systems

Systemic Change 4 Levels

The Organizing Process

Faith-rooted
Organizing is a
Prophetic Path

Note: It's not a linear process MOST of the time

NUMA Committee Members & their role

- Committee members: Jon Olsen, Hannah Choi, Eurie Kim, Steph Tran and Young Choi

Roles:

- Share information and learnings and invite congregation to action
- Responsible to lead in a process to set priorities
- Take lead in connecting with partners and public officials

Issue Discussion

Housing:

- What is the social problem?
- What is your experience?
- What is the vision?

Immigration:

- What is the social problem?
- What is your experience?
- What is the vision?

What k-12 education issues are you concerned about, if any? Are there other social issues that concern you?

Interest Form

Next Step

